PRIERREURO, VA., March 22.—Three venires of twenty men cach were summoned in the Hussings Court this morning before a jury could be obtained to try the case of Robert McClanalan (colored), indicted for the murder of Lucius Ingo in September last. A great many of the men had formed and expressed opinions were biased one way or the other, were opinised to capital punishment, could not give in impartial trial, or were otherwise disqualified. One gentleman had not give an impartial trial, or were otherwise disqualified. One gentleman had served on three murder trials and thought he ought to be excused in this instance; another declared himself in favor of the old Hemocratic doctrine of rotation in office. He said he had served rathfinitions a puror whenever called upon, but he thought there should be no responsiment under Democratic rules. Both gentlemen were sceepted. After over three hours of effort a jury was empanelled, and the trial was commenced, NOT SULLEY THE PLEA. NOT GUILTY THE PLEA.

DEATH OF DR. ARTHUR Z. KOINER A Former Professor in the Richmond Medical College-A Stiff Pay-Roll.

(Special telegram to the Distract.)

ROANGE, VA., March 22.—Dr. Arthur Z. Koiner, one of the most prominent physicians in this city, died to-day at 1:15 P. M., at his residence, on Franklin street, aged 38 years, after a serious illness of only one week of acute kidney trouble. Deceased was one of Virginia's most able physicians, having graduated in the academic course at Roanoke College, after which he entered the University of Virginia, from which he graduated in medicine. From there he went to Germany, taking a course at the University of Gottengen, and from there to the Royal Imperial Hospital at Vienna. In 1878 he returned to Virginia and begun the practice of medicine in Richmond, and in the fall of 1879 he was elected to the faculty of the Virginia Medical College in that city. Falling health caused him to resign, and since then he has practiced medicine in this city, where he was held in the highest esteem in professional as well as social life. Roanoke to-day losses a citizen, whose name will always be cherished. He was an elder in the Lutheran Church. He leaves a wife and one child. elder in the Lutheran Church. He leaves wife and one child.

PAID OFF. The Roanoke Machine-Works paid off to-day, the pay-roll amounting to $41,090. Rev. J. F. Love, lately assistant pastor of the First Baptist church of Baltimore, Md., has been secured temporarily to fill the pulpit of the First Baptist church here, lately vacated by Dr. O. F. Flippo.

His Family Accompany Them to Their Last Resting-Place, Auburn, Mc. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Hor Springs, Va., March 22.—The family of Mr. John Stimson, whose death occurred at Healing Springs on yesterday, started this evening on their sad mission of accompanying his remains to their last resting-place, in Auburn, Me. He was born in Gray, Me., in 1830; lived for twenty-five years at Auburn; was married in 1854 to Miss Elmira N. Learnet, who, with three children, still survives him.

He was a brother-in-law of Mr. M. E. Ingalls, president of the Chesaneake and Ohio Rallway Company, and his place. Three years ago he came here and assumed the management of the Healing Springs Hotel for the Virginia Hot Springs Company, of which he was a director. He was a consistent member of the Congregational Church and belonged to the Masons and Odd Fellows. The latter order will at his request take charge of his remains. His illness was brief and his death peaceful He will be preatly missed by his neighbors and acquintances, upon whose affections he had

A FATHER'S FATAL ACCIDENT.

Run Over and Killed After a Chat with His Son-Change of the Route. (Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., March 22.—A horrible secident occurred this afternoon at Dundee, a North Danville suburb. Mr. H. W.

Stanfield, a citizen of Guilford county, N. C., came here to see his son, who is a brakeman on the Richmond and Danville. He went to the caboose-car and had a chat with his son. He had hardly left the car when a basing train struck him and knocked him down, five cars passing over his prostrate body and mangling it in a horrible manner. An inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts. The remains will be taken to Bonaja, the bome of the deceased, for burial. He was about 50 years old and leaves a wife and three children.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

The directors of the Danville Street-Car Company held a meeting here this afternoon and decided, because of opposition on the part of abutting property-owners, to abandon the proposed extension of the line to Reservoir Park, and instead to extend the line out Union and Holbrook streets and thence to the cemetery.

There was a slight fire in the ticket-office of the Richmond and Danville railroad this evening, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. A quantity of tickets were injured by water.

Carried Over $90,000 insurance.

Mr. W. J. Cursen, the manager of the Millhiser Manufacturing Company, whose death was announced in the Disparch yesterday morning, was very heavily insured. He carried $36,750 in the Northwestern Mutual, $15,000 in the Penn, the same amount each in the Washington and the Urion, $740 in the New York Life, and had a paid-np policy in the Mutual of New York for $1,000, making a total of $82,900. As late as January he had $10,000 in the Manhattan also, and though he spoke of dropping a part of this, it is not known whether he carried out his intention.

The Messrs, Milihiser speak in the highest terms of the deceased. He was a man of the most kindly disposition and was a great friend of the poor.

You Saw Your Own Wood and saw enough of it, your digestive organs may perhaps be equal, ostrich like, to any task you impose—even to the digestion of lard-cooked food.

If however, like thousands of other people, you have learned that you must "draw the line at lard," this is to remind you that there is a clean, delicate and healthful vegetable substitute, which if used in place of lard, permits you to eat pies, pastry, patties and such "good things" without fear of dyspeptic consequences.

The destruction of sheep by dogs is very great. Messrs. Harwood Brothers lost eight sheep one night last week. Mr. Webb claims to have shot an eagle which had one of Mr. Catlett's lambs in the top of a holly-tree. Webb says he fired both barrels, but that the shot were too small to kill the eagle. The bird dropped the lamb, which was unburt. Apparently there is a touch of Munchausenism about this story.

situated on Bent creek, about six miles from the Chesspeake and Ohlo railway, and about ten miles from the Norfolk and Western railroad. There are fine and extensive buildings of all describtions usually found in the country on this land. The quality of the sand was originally good, consisting of creek-bottom, high land, original forests, and needs only the care and attention of a skilful farmer to make it all that could be desired. The land had been owned by the testator for more than a generation, and his title was never questioned.

This land will be sold as a whole or in parcels to suit purchasers. Judge D. A. Christian, of Appomatics, will take pleasure in showing it to persons descring to examine it.

TERMS: Ten per cent of purchase-money in cash; the balance in three equal instainments at one, two, and three years, bearing legal interest from day of sale, for bonds, with good personal security, retakining title. In case a purchaser may prefer to pay down as much as one third of the purchase-money personal security may be dispensed with.
